Democratic Meeting in Grenada County.

GRENADA, MISS., Jan. 3d, 1876.

EDS. CLARION: As directed I send you for publication the proceedings of a meeting held here, which was larger and more enthusiastic than reported.

Respectfully &c.,

S. S. ANGEVINE, Secretary.

At a called meeting of the Crowder Democratic-Conservative Club, of Grenada, to which all Democrats and Conservatives were invited (whether members of the Club or not), there was a very full attendance, and the following proceedings were had:

On motion, gentlemen from the several Supervisors' Districts of the county, were requested to state the views of the people of their respective districts, so far as known, in reference to their choice of United States Senator. Whereupon,

Wm. H. Powell, the lately elected Supervisor from Beat No. 4; Dr. J. Williams, President of the Board; John T. Parker, member from Beat No. 2; Capt. M. K. Myster, speaking for Beat No. 3; and Col. L. D. Leflore, speaking for Beat No. 5, in connection with Dr. Williams, all stated, as their opinions, that in their respective beats, Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar was the choice of the people by a large majority.

Thereupon, on motion of O. F. Bledsoe, Esq., of Beat No. 1, a committee of twenty was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting, to-wit: O. F. Bledsoe, John T. Parker, Wm. H. Powell, Dr. J. Williams, Capt. M. K. Myster, Jr., J. M. Ellis, Esq., Col. M. K. Myster, Sr., Dr. T. C. Buffington, Gen. E. C. Walthall, Dr. J. L. Milton, R. Caffman, Capt. W. C. Eskridge, Sam. Lawrence, G. W. Freeman, Esq., Thomas E. Peacock, Col. J. D. Leflore, Jacob Poitevant, Richard P. Lake, S. P. Loeck, R. S. Bowles.

Before the committee retired, Dr. T. C. Buffington, one of its members, moved that by way of testing the sense of the meeting, all present favoring the election of Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, should rise to their feet, when all present arose except one. The committee retired and reported the following resolutions, which, after remarks in opposition from Col. A. S. Pass, were passed with vociferous applause, the chairman announcing that there was but one dissenting vote—to-wit:

Resolved, 1st, That we recognize in L. Q. C. Lamar, one of our Representatives in Congress, a statesman of exalted merit and character, and unsurpassed talents, and commanding at the present time a national position, from which he can effect vast good for our State and country, that we deem it our policy, interest and glory to send him to the United States Senate.

Resolved, 2d, Believing him to be the choice of a large majority of the people of Grenada county, we request our Senator and Representative to use their best efforts for his election.

Resolved, 3d, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Southern Rural Gentleman, Grenada Sentinel, CLARION and Appeal, and to our Senator and Representative.

During the progress of the meeting, which was very harmonious and enthusiastic, short speeches were made by Gen. E. C. Walthall, Dr. J. L. Milton, Col. R. S. Bowles and R. Caffman.

On motion of R. Caffman, it was resolved that this Club keep up its organization with its present officers, and until otherwise ordered, that it meet the first Saturday of every month, until after the Presidential election; and that this meeting do now adjourn until the first Saturday in February next.

J. B. CROWDER, President.

MORTON'S BLOODY SHIRT AND THE AMES GANG.

Morton's Mission.

Special to the Chicago Times.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Senator Morton spends all of his leisure during the holiday vacation in wearing a many-hued bloody shirt, which he proposes to flaunt in the Senate when he presses his resolution calling for an investigation into the method of conducting the late State election in Mississippi. The Ames gang of political pirates are working with him in the heaping up of mountains of testimony, which is to labor and bring forth a mouse as a result. The faithful colored brother has been invited to correspond with Morton concerning his grievances. Local thieves, fresh from the penitentiary, whose career of official stealing is becoming rather circumscribed, contribute also much to Morton's demand for testimony as to intimidation. The hoosier Senator fondly hopes that all of this testimony will have an effect upon the Senate. It may, but the administrative majority there does not take as kindly as it once did to

SANGUINARY ROMANCES ABOUT SOUTHERN AFFAIRS.

Logan, the cheerful backer of Morton in this sort of fiction, will not be active this winter. Mr. Morton will have to carry the burden of his effort nearly alone. If he is successful in securing an investigation, it can amount to nothing. No administration could afford to attempt to set aside an election such as was conducted in Mississippi last fall, without expecting a rebellion in return.
